CHECK THESE OUT

Ivy and Bean Series

This is a beloved series in our libraries, about two girls who are opposites yet become fast friends and go on crazy adventures together. Read the books, then watch the series on Netflix!

Social Emotional Books

Our Social Emotional books pair well with the Hello, Jack! The Kindness Show on Apple TV. Both teach kindness, manners, and encourage compassion for others.

Magazines

Our libraries have a wide variety of magazines that contain topics relevant and interesting to kids. For relevant and interesting topics in the news, watch Nick News on Paramount +

READING TO 4K

These are the 4K classes at River Heights. I read Three Billy Goats Gruff to the AM class, and the Three Little Pigs to the afternoon class.

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

The morning 4K class listened me read this book. After I left, the kids decided they needed to play goats crossing the bridge. Someone even got to play the part of the troll. Too cute!

The Three Little Pigs

The afternoon 4K class heard the story of The Three Little Pigs.

It was very interactive!

"...he huffed and he puffed, and he blew the house down..."

WHATS BEEN FLYING OFF OUR SHELVES?!?!?!

Kindergarten at Downsville

Mrs. Livingston's kindergarten class were great listeners to our read aloud of "I'm not scared, you're scared!" When we were done watching, friends shared times they were scared but then showed courage.

3rd Grade at Downsville

Here, a few of Ms. Wildner's 3rd graders are drawing their favorite literary characters.
